AMA Group trailblazers finalists for Women in Collision Awards

Four inspiring women from the AMA Group are among the finalists announced today by Paint & Panel for their seventh annual Women in Collision Awards.

The Women in Collision awards recognise the outstanding contribution that women make to the collision repair industry. From spray painters to centre managers, talented women enrich the industry and the AMA Group.

Of the 13 AMA Group employees nominated by their managers and colleagues for their talents, experience and invaluable contributions to our group, the following four are finalists:

Admin. / Customer Service category

- Ashleigh Dooley, Capital S.M.A.R.T. National Support Office (Vic)

Parts Manager category

- Sheridan Gibson, Micra Hobart (Tas)

Technician/Estimator category

- Isabella Turrise, Apprentice Spray Painter, ARM Mt Druitt (NSW)
- Selina Kalkandis, Spray Painter, Capital S.M.A.R.T. Rowville (Vic)

A full list of finalists can be found at www.paintandpanel.com.au/events-and-awards/women-in-collision-news/women-in-collision-finalists.

The two winners of each category will be announced and presented with trophies at the Women in Collision seminar on 25 February 2022, then profiled in Paint & Panel magazine.

AMA Group Chief Operating Officer, Mathew Cooper said, "Everyone at AMA Group is very proud of all our nominees and we wish our finalists the best of luck."
